News of the Clubs

(All notices for this department should be in The Star office not later than Thursday, 3 p.m. Important meetings that occur later in the week will be published if space permits.)

Women's City Club.—Mrs. Ella Steinberg will be the hostess at the tea this afternoon from 4:30 to 6 o'clock.

Tomorrow evening at 8:30 the entertainment committee will present Carrie Harrison in a lecture on "Rose Culture," assisted by Dr. Lumsden and Dr. Mulford, agricultural experts. Ell Emanuel will give violinello solos, assisted by Miss Pinckel, Putnam, and Wednesday, 4:30 p.m., Mrs. W. Chamberlin, chairman public relief committee, will introduce Miss A. Lloyd, head of the Caney Creek Community Center at Pippa Pass, in the Kentucky mountains, who will bring four of the boys with her. Members of the College Women's Club are cordially invited.

Wednesday evening, 8 o'clock, Miss Mabel Hill will speak of the writing of a short story, Mrs. Caroline B. Stephen presiding.

The Edith Wynne Mathison recital April 28 at 4:30 at Masonic Temple is exclusively under the patronage of the club. Tickets may be obtained at the club from April 17, Mrs. Henrietta Packard in charge.

The minstrel show given by the business and professional women's section has been postponed from April 28 to May 16.

Delegates and alternates from the club to the D. C. F. W. C. are Mrs. Hiram Snell, Mrs. Gurney Strong, Mrs. George W. Eastment, Mrs. William E. Chamberlin, Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey and Mrs. O. I. Woodley.

The Twentieth Century Club presented the play "Aria da Capo" with such artistic success at its Thursday meeting at the Cosmos Club that it is to be repeated for the benefit of the Travelers Aid April 28 at 8 p.m., at Chevy Chase School, Mrs. C. C. Erickson, E. Farrington, who directed the play, read its prologue and acted the role of Pierrot. Mrs. Benjamin E. Smith, as Columbine; Mrs. Philip Sidney Smith and Mrs. Nathan C. Grover, as the shepherds, Thyrus and Corydon, and Mrs. George R. Putnam, as Tragedy, gave to their interpretations a realism of everyday human nature carried in fantastic guise.

A new method of nominating candidates from the floor was inaugurated at a called meeting Thursday, when the following officers were nominated: Mrs. William H. Herron, for president, to succeed herself; Mrs. Frank Briggs, also to succeed herself, as first vice president; Mrs. Frank H. Wilkins, Mrs. P. S. Smith, second vice president; Mrs. A. H. Brooks, recording secretary; Mrs. A. H. Horton, Mrs. Robert S. Yard, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Myra Hendley, treasurer; Mrs. Walter C. Allen, Mrs. L. S. Fristoe, assistant treasurer. Election will take place in May. The club indorsed a resolution to the effect that women and children of the District who may be detained by the police be safeguarded and handled exclusively by the woman's bureau, and that Congress be urged to support the treatment of the cause of the great value to women and children.

Anthony League.—Robert Lawrence spoke on "Civic Improvement Through Music" at the meeting of the Anthony League Thursday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. Anna E. Hendley, 2007 Columbia road. Mrs. Clotilde Chambers was the guest of honor and Mrs. John Smith, hostess. Delegates were elected for the annual meeting of the District Federation of Women's Clubs and indorsement for the re-election of Miss Lillian Williamson as director to the general federation was given. Resolutions were adopted supporting the campaign for the new home for the Central Union Mission, and asking that the franking privilege be granted to the Prisoners' Relief Society of Washington, D. C., as stated in the bill now pending in the Senate. The league congratulated E. C. Snyder, husband of one of the members, upon his appointment as marshal for the District. The league will meet Wednesday evening, 8 o'clock, when Mrs. Ada Brown Talbot will give an illustrated lecture on Canada. Mrs. Margaret McMichael will give humorous recitations; Mrs. Wayne B. Wheeler will have charge of the music, and Mrs. Clara Sears Taylor will be guest of honor. Mrs. Charles H. Werner will act as hostess. The meetings of the Anthony League are open to the public.

The Housekeepers' Alliance will hold its third quarterly meeting on Thursday at 2:30 p.m. in the small ballroom of the new Willard Hotel. Mrs. A. T. Buchanan will speak on "Textiles and the Testing of Wool Fabrics," a subject in which she has specialized as tester in one of our large stores. She is teaching this subject to a class in the Y. W. C. A. Meeting is open to the public.

The Abundant Club met Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arturo V. Casanova. The response to roll call was by remarks on current events. Henry L. Barlick read extracts from "Greenleaf and Law in the Federal City." Miss Lucile Hardesty sang, accompanied by Mrs. John M. Sylvester.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Blomfield H. Howard; first vice president, Mrs. Lotta B. Moorehouse; second vice president, Mrs. Robert M. Barlick; secretary-treasurer, Henry L. Barlick; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Frank S. Ray, chairman of executive committee, Mrs. Virginia E. Metcalf, appointed members of the executive committee: Mrs. Jessie McCausland Casanova, John C. Proctor, Judge J. W. Thompson, Mrs. Louise A. Abbott.

The Col. John Donelson Chapter, D. A. R., met Tuesday evening, at the home of Mrs. Robert F. Shealey, 11 East Monroe avenue, Chevy Chase. Miss Helen Harmon, regent, presiding. A two-minute talk on the revolutionary ancestors of the present was a feature of the program.

The New England Women of Washington held their March meeting at the home of Mrs. H. B. Patten. The president, Mrs. Charlotte E. Main, was in the chair. Mrs. S. D. Taylor, representing the Y. W. C. A., gave a talk on the activities of the association. Miss Alice Whitcomb gave a recitation from the writings of Mrs. Sarah Orne Jewett, and also a humorous selection entitled "The Minister's Farewell."

The Council of Jewish Women will meet Tuesday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, in the vestry rooms of the Washington Hebrew Congregation. Robert Lawrence, organizer of Music week here, will speak on "Music and Good Citizenship," and Mrs. H. M. Shapiro will sing.

The Amble Club met Wednesday evening at its clubrooms, 1022 11th street, when last arrangements were made for the Easter Monday dance to be given at Mrs. Dyer's, 1517 R street. Invitations have been extended to other clubs and fraternities.

Business matters were followed by a dance. The club was represented by its president, Francis A. McCann, and others at the Monday meeting of National Council of Catholic Men to assist in the Boy Scout movement.

Chapter "B," P. E. O., met recently with Mrs. Frank Fuller, 1450 Girard street, when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Leroy Palmer; vice president, Mrs. H. J. Harris; corresponding secretary, Miss Emma F. Shirrine; recording secretary, Mrs. J. W. Crabtree; treasurer, Mrs. W. W. Stockbridge; chaplain, Mrs. L. L. McCoy; guard, Mrs. Otis J. Rogers.

The Newcomb Club met March 31, with Mrs. Daniel Mahoney as hostess. Mrs. William Emory gave a talk on current events. Mrs. Arthur Chatman spoke of the "Increased Vocabulary Since the War."

CLUBS TO GET TOGETHER.

Colored Baptist Church Organizations Plan to Form League.

The men's clubs in colored Baptist churches in the District are making an effort to get together in a city-wide organization in order to make Baptist men more active and effective in Baptist affairs in the District of Columbia. Representatives of the twenty or more men's clubs in these churches have been at work for several weeks arousing the members to the necessity of doing more for Christ and His cause.

A meeting under the auspices of these clubs will be held in Shiloh Baptist Church (Strangers Home), this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Waldron will deliver the principal address and representatives of the various clubs will be given an opportunity to speak concerning the proposed organization, while men's quartets, choruses, etc., will render special musical selections. The meeting will be open to the public and it is expected preliminary steps will be taken at this meeting to organize a League of Baptist Men's Clubs.

HELD IN $10,000 BOND.

Would-Be Bank Thief Waives Police Examination.

Edward O. Merriam, alias Edward Royton, who was arrested Monday in connection with the attempted theft of $5,000 from the Merchants' Bank and Trust Company, waived examination in Police Court Friday and was held under a bond of $10,000 to await action of the grand jury. The defendant has been confined at the Washington Asylum Hospital for treatment since his capture.

GOES TO PRISON FOR LIFE.

Benjamin H. Young, Colored, Sentenced for Slaying Wife.

Benjamin H. Young, colored, convicted of murder in the second degree in connection with the killing of his wife, Genevieve Young, twenty-four years old, was sentenced today by Chief Justice McCoy to life imprisonment in the penitentiary. Young had been charged with first-degree murder, but the jury reduced the crime. The court considered the jury had extended all the clemency called for in the case.

Young shot his wife during a quarrel in the early morning of January 3 last, and, after crossing her arms left the body lying on the street, where it was discovered by the police. He fled, but later communicated with his sister, and his arrest followed.

Service and Satisfaction!

When you come to us for home-furnishings it's an obligation to insure you satisfaction—not alone with the quality—but also with the price. That's one of the features of our service. Another feature is the accommodation offered by our Credit Department. "At your service" always.
